Program overview

They're back! 2013 is on track to be the most active year for IPOs since 2007. 121 companies have raised $26.7B in IPO capital in the U.S. markets as of August 9, and the pipeline continues to grow at a healthy pace through the end of the year. So far, 2013 has been the year of the private equity-backed IPO, with IPOs from Quintiles, SeaWorld, COTY, and Bright Horizons, among others, and several more are expected before year-end. Large carve-outs such as Zoetis and ING U.S. have taken advantage of record highs in the market and lows in the volatility index. All industry sectors have seen activity, with biotech among the most active. Companies filing under the JOBS Act continue to make up a large portion of IPO activity, accounting for 99 of this year's 121 IPOs so far.

With this in mind, please join capital market professionals and thought leaders from KPMG LLP, NYSE Euronext, and Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP to learn about the following timely issues:

- The current state of the market and the anticipated future
- Requirements for going public and what you need to do, such as filing requirements, due diligence, selecting advisers, structuring your board, and filling out management

- Choosing an exchange: What to look for and why it makes a difference
- Preparing for an IPO from a legal perspective presented by SEC counsel
