

INCLUSION IS IN OUR

DNA

weil.com/about-weil/diversity-and-inclusion

A commitment to diversity and inclusion has been at the core of our firm since Frank Weil, Sylvan Gotshal, and Horace Manges found many doors closed to them because of their religious beliefs. They founded Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP to open those doors. For over 30 years, Weil has been a leader in investing in formal initiatives to cultivate an inclusive culture where all feel comfortable and encouraged to excel.

5 Affinity Groups:

- AsianAttorneys@Weil
- Black Attorney Affinity Group
- WeilLatinx
- WeilPride (LGBTQ+ Affinity Group)
- Women@Weil

In 2015, Weil launched Upstanders@Weil to establish an explicit role for diversity allies and promote greater inclusion for all groups. Upstanders are allies, supporters and advocates for people and communities that share a different background or identity than one's own.

Intersectionality

Weil's affinity group partnerships address the intersectionality of race, sexual orientation and other diversity demographics. For example, in fall 2019, the Black Attorney Affinity Group and WeilPride co-hosted a dinner with SoundCloud General Counsel Antonious Porch (pictured above). Additionally in fall 2020, Weil hosted a webinar with Haben Girma, a Black woman who was the first Deafblind person to graduate from Harvard Law. The Firm also hosts biannual breakfasts for women attorneys of color.

Affinity Group Conferences

Weil has been a leader among law firms for holding firmwide conferences for Asian, Black, Latino, and LGBTQ+ attorneys. The conferences bring together summer associates and attorneys from across the Firm's offices for professional development, internal networking and mentoring, client development, and diversity pipeline efforts. To date, the Firm has held 17 affinity group conferences. In January 2017, the Firm held a global Multicultural Attorney Conference bringing together Asian, Black and Latino attorneys from across the US and London offices. In 2018, the Black Attorney Affinity Group and WeilPride, the LGBTQ+ Affinity Group, held their conferences. An AsianAttorneys@Weil conference was held in November 2019 (pictured above).

Client Diversity Events

All of Weil's affinity groups contribute to the Firm's bottom line and work to enhance their individual members' networks and client development skills. Recent examples include the 9th annual WeilPride client networking reception; Weil's Pan Affinity Group Council hosted special pre-screenings of Wonder Woman, the RBG documentary, On the Basis of Sex, and Harriet (pictured above). Additionally, several Weil offices hosted attorneys and clients at four stops of Becoming: An Intimate Conversation with Michelle Obama. In New York, a 1L diversity recruiting reception and panel featured representatives from Eli Lilly to kick off the recruiting season.

Mentoring Circles

Diversity sponsored mentoring circles offer additional access to partners as advisors and role models, foster peer mentoring and provide a forum to discuss diversity topics. Women@Weil has over 20 active mentoring circles which include one female partner and one male partner and groups of male and female associates to discuss career development, work-life, and diversity topics. Associate of color mentoring circles include one white partner and one partner of color with associates of color across departments and levels and many affinity groups have developed virtual mentoring circles to stay connected during this time.

TOWER | Taskforce on Women's Engagement & Retention

TOWER is a committee of female and male partners from across the Firm focused on the advancement and development of female attorneys globally.

Partner Kelly DiBlasi interviewed retired partner Marcia Goldstein to capture Marcia's insights before she left the firm as part of our ongoing Weil Women's Wisdom series.

Deep commitment to the diversity pipeline

Weil's multifaceted diversity pipeline efforts increase access to opportunities from elementary school to law school and beyond, such as:

- To strengthen the pipeline of high school graduates matriculating to college, Weil attorneys and staff volunteer with the Big Brothers Big Sisters Workplace Mentoring and PENCIL Partnership Programs.
- To support law students of color, Weil sponsors and hosts 1L exam preparation programs, mock interviews and resume writing workshops with nonprofit partner, PALS (Practicing Attorneys for Law Students).
