IS IN OUR

DNA

weil.com/about-weil/diversity-equity-and-inclusion

In 1931, Frank Weil, Sylvan Gotshal, and Horace Manges founded Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP after finding many doors closed to them simply because of their religious affiliation. Today, Weil is recognized as an outspoken leader that prides itself in continuing to open doors for diverse generations to come, engendering and empowering talent inclusivity at a global scale.

INTERSECTIONALITY

Partnerships between Weil's affinity groups address the intersectionality of race, sexual orientation and other diversity demographics. For example, Pride Month 2021 programming included a Women of WeilPride panel with client/alumni panelists Danielle Do of Synchrony and Erin Law of Morgan Stanley. In March 2021, Professor Kimberlé Crenshaw discussed the importance of viewing history and current events through the lens of intersectionality. In particular, the Firm focused on hosting a variety of in-person and virtual events with a keen focus on promoting intersectionality as an agenda.

TOWER

Taskforce on Women's Engagement & Retention

TOWER is a committee of female and male partners from across the Firm focused on the advancement and development of female attorneys globally.

DISABILITY INCLUSION

Weil was an early signatory of The Valuable 500, a global movement putting disability on the business leadership agenda. In 2021, the Firm established disability guidelines that provide best practices for making events more accessible for all. The Firm held a number of programs including a fireside chat with Michael Hingson, a 9/11 survivor, author, and disability advocate.

GENDER IDENTITY AND TRANSGENDER INCLUSION

In 2021, Weil adopted transgender inclusion guidelines, encouraged all attorneys and staff to add pronouns to their email signatures, and held programs on these topics, including trainings from Human Rights Campaign and a fireside chat with Anya Marino and Alejandra Caraballo, the first transgender women of color professors at Harvard Law School.

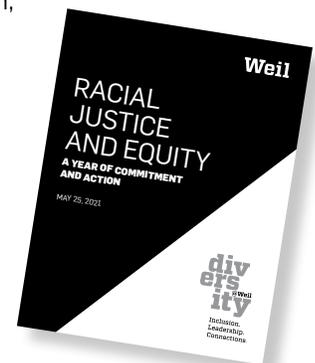

WEIL VETS

In 2021, Weil created a network of attorneys and staff who have served in the military, have family members who serve, or are interested in recruiting and supporting military veterans. In honor of Veterans' Day 2021, the Firm hosted Nadja West, the first Black female Lieutenant General and the highest-ranking woman to graduate from the U.S. Military Academy.

RACIAL JUSTICE & EQUITY: A YEAR OF COMMITMENT AND ACTION

In 2020, the Firm recommitted to our racial equity efforts internally and externally. The commitment included the launch of the racial justice speaker series with 30+ programs, joining the Law Firm Antiracism Alliance (LFAA), signing statements condemning Anti-Asian hate and Anti-Semitism, and creating a Racial Justice fellowship program.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS

Black Attorney Affinity Group Conference 2018

AFFINITY GROUP CONFERENCES

Weil is a leader among law firms in holding internal conferences for Asian, Black, Latinx, and LGBTQ+ attorneys. The conferences bring together summer associates and attorneys from across the Firm's offices for professional development, internal networking and mentoring, and client development efforts. To date, the Firm has held 17 affinity group conferences.

DIVERSE LEADERSHIP PROGRAMS

TOWER (women) and BLAST (Black Lawyers Achieving Success Together) have a series of tailored career development initiatives. Tailored by level, the elements include externally facilitated group coaching sessions, one-on-one executive coaching, business plan development, and senior leader sponsors.

MENTORING CIRCLES

Diversity-sponsored mentoring circles offer bespoke access to partners as advisors and role models, foster peer mentoring and provide a forum to discuss diversity topics. There are currently over 25 active mentoring circles including those for women associates, associates of color, LGBTQ+ associates, and Black staff managers. Many affinity groups developed virtual mentoring circles to stay connected during the pandemic.

Mentorship is opening yourself up to meaningful and authentic professional connections and is more rewarding the more you dedicate your time to it. It is never too soon to be a mentor or too late to seek out new mentors

CLIENT DIVERSITY EVENTS

An important focus of Weil's affinity groups is to continually grow members' networks alongside client development opportunities. Events such as film screenings and small group gatherings have served to create meaningful and lasting dialogue, connecting with both clients and alumni on how best to meet the needs of their business.

IMPACT AND CHANGE

DIVERSITY EDUCATION

2021 marks 10 years since Executive Partner Barry Wolf mandated annual training for all U.S. Attorneys and Staff. In 2021, the U.S. training led by Hollaback! promoted antiracist behavior in the workplace. The London office's annual training led by Caroline Flanagan also addressed antiracism and allyship. In 2019 mandatory inclusion workshops led by David Rosenbauer were held in Frankfurt, Munich, and Paris offices.

DIVERSITY MONTH

The 2021 theme was "Antiracism and Allyship: The Collective Power of Individual Actions" and featured virtual programs globally such as Blair Imani's practical insights on how to be an effective ally and Liz Klinerock on ways to facilitate anti-bias and anti-racist practices in the workplace. The Firm's 30-day Antiracism Challenge program was another well-received initiative that successfully raised awareness and dialogue at all levels.

Upstanders@Weil established an explicit role for diversity allies in promoting inclusion. Upstanders are allies, supporters, and advocates for people and communities that share a different background or identity than one's own.

PIPELINE COMMITMENTS

Weil's multifaceted diversity pipeline efforts aim to increase access and opportunity across the board. Weil attorneys and staff volunteer with the Big Brothers Big Sisters and PENCIL Partnership Programs to encourage students to consider and prepare for opportunities in the legal profession. Additionally, to support law students of color, Weil sponsors and hosts 1L exam preparation programs, mock interviews and resume writing workshops with nonprofit partner PALS (Practicing Attorneys for Law Students).
