

GEORGE MASON LAW REVIEW 22ND ANNUAL ANTITRUST SYMPOSIUM

The agenda is subject to changes; please check back for updates.

Friday, February 15, 2019

- | | | |
|---------------------|--|---|
| 8:30 AM - 8:55 AM | Registration & Breakfast | ◆ |
| 9:00 AM - 9:05 AM | Welcome & Opening Remarks | ◆ |
| 9:05 AM - 9:30 AM | Opening Morning Keynote Makan Delrahim , Assistant Attorney General, US Department of Justice Antitrust Division | ◆ |
| 9:30 AM - 10:45 AM | Panel 1: Antitrust Litigation - Twiqbal a Decade Later This panel will examine the challenges associated with bringing a private antitrust action, with a focus on meeting the heightened pleading standards set out by the Supreme Court in Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly and Ashcroft v. Iqbal. It will also address the possible ramifications of the Apple v. Pepper case pending before the Supreme Court this term, and what a decision may mean for indirect purchaser standing. Speakers Include: Steven E. Bizar, Dechert LLP Eric Mahr, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP Scott Martin, Hausfeld LLP Tara L. Reinhart, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP Mary Beth Savio, Charles River Associates | ◆ |
| 11:00 AM - 12:15 PM | Panel 2: Remedying Merger Remedies This panel will discuss the merits of behavioral remedies (those designed to regulate the future conduct of antitrust defendants or parties to a proposed merger) versus structural remedies (those that require some form of structural change by the party or parties, such as the sale of certain assets or lines of business). It will also examine the appropriate role of private equity buyers in structuring remedies and the challenge in framing proposed remedies. Speakers Include: Debbie Feinstein, Arnold & Porter Kaye Scholer LLP Bruce M. McCulloch, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP Jeffrey H. Perry, Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP Haidee L. Schwartz, Federal Trade Commission John M. Yun, Global Antitrust Institute, George Mason University Antonin Scalia Law School | ◆ |
| 12:15 PM - 1:30 PM | Luncheon Keynote Address Christine S. Wilson , Commissioner, US Federal Trade Commission | ◆ |
| 1:45 PM - 3:00 PM | Panel 3: Reviewing CFIUS Review: National Security, Industrial Policy, and Competition Law This panel will discuss the appropriateness of specific governmental restraints of trade, most notably foreign investment review. How significant are these restraints of trade? What are their impacts on the American economy and consumer well being? How appropriate are the mitigation measures that may be imposed following CFIUS review? And to what extent should these determinations be subject to review by Article III judges? Speakers Include: Sean Heather, US Chamber of Commerce Justin T. Huff, Jones Day Stephen Paul Mahinka, Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP Laurie Self, Qualcomm Scott Andrew Sher, Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati | ◆ |

3:15 PM - 4:30 PM

Panel 4: Antitrust and Big Tech

This panel will examine claims that modern computing and Internet technologies make certain industries inherently more susceptible to monopolization than older industries. Panelists will discuss the role of antitrust in technology markets, including the review of nascent competition mergers, monopolization, standard setting, and platform liability post-Ohio v. American Express.

Speakers Include:

Michael S. McFalls, Ropes & Gray LLP

Jeffrey Primbrey, Charles River Associates

Hal J. Singer, Econ One Research; George Washington University, School of Public Policy

Joshua D. Wright, Global Antitrust Institute, George Mason University Antonin Scalia Law School

4:30 PM - 4:35 PM

Closing Remarks

4:35 PM - 6:00 PM

Reception